Learn Music Theory Online

Theory is one of the most exciting aspects of studying music. No, seriously – it's true!

Having a knowledge of music theory allows you to understand, exploit and experiment with the very building blocks of music itself... it's essentially a superpower.

Learn music theory with tutor Tas Richards, an experienced pianist, music teacher and music theory fanatic who wants to help you to uncover the world's most powerful musical secrets for yourself. Level up your music reading, writing and composition skills. Develop your musical interpretation and expression. Glide through your theory exams!

All you need is a computer or another device with audio/video capabilities, an ABRSM or Trinity book of your relevant grade and a hungry musical mind - we provide everything else.

Our group lessons take place in an online classroom with all the benefits of learning in a class, only without the need to leave the front door!

One-on-one lessons will appeal to those students who want classes more specially catered to their individual learning.

❖ Lessons from $20!

❖ First lesson free for all group classes!
